Lux Industries Limited • Kolkata • 05/2025 - Present

Lux Industries Limited is one of India's largest and most respected innerwear and hosiery manufacturers, renowned for its flagship brand "Lux Cozi" and a diverse portfolio of over 15 brands. Headquartered in Kolkata, the company operates with a strong national and international presence across more than 45 countries. With a legacy of over 60 years and a commitment to quality, innovation, and market leadership, Lux Industries leverages advanced manufacturing facilities and a pan-India distribution network to serve millions of customers.

Senior BI Developer • Full-time

In my role as a Senior BI Developer, I drive data-driven decision-making across departments such as sales, supply chain, finance, and marketing. My core responsibilities include designing and developing robust business intelligence solutions, optimizing data models, and delivering end-to-end analytics pipelines.

Key Skills & Technologies:

- Tableau: Designed dynamic dashboards for real-time performance monitoring and KPI tracking.
- SQL: Developed and optimized complex queries for reporting, ETL processes, and data validation.
- Python: Automated data workflows, performed data wrangling, and integrated predictive analytics features.
- AWS: Built scalable data pipelines using S3, Glue, AppFlow, and RDS for cloud-based storage, transformation, and integration.

These initiatives have significantly improved reporting efficiency, enhanced data visibility across teams, and contributed to strategic business initiatives.
